Take Your CT Permit Test Get Ready for Driving Exam Take Your CT Driving Exam Passed the Test. I read the drivers manual and did the practice questions on this site. The tests were pretty helpful in familiarizing myself with the manual and the kind of questions they may ask. Took my test today at DMV and cleared in first attempt. Thank you so much again. This site is awesome, it makes everything so much easier to understand and you retain information better by taking the tests. I read the handbook, but mostly took a ton of practice tests on here, and it most definitely helped when I actually took the exam. All of the separate tests that tested on specific areas really helped, and the practice exam got me prepared to realize that I needed to know a whole range of things when the time came. I felt like the exam at the DMV was easy after all the studying I did. This website is awesome and very helpful. Those who are planning to take permit test, my recommendation to them is to practice as many tests as you can from this site because it is very useful. One should definitely read the drivers manual of the state before appearing for the knowledge test, but I would definitely recommend that once that is done, please visit this site and go through the practice tests and the DMV simulator test. This site has got every kind and range of question which can be asked in the real test. I took the test today and PASSED at the very first attempt, almost every question in the real test was experienced by me here in the practice tests. Studied a lot! Read the manual 3x didnt help me at all haha, if you want to pass, use this website!!! Without it, I would not have passed. Try to pass with a 100 on every test and youll be fine.
